

Worthy Webinars This Week: Kumashiro Workshops

In addition to this Thursday's NEPC webinar concerning public funding of religious schools (still time to register here), NEPC Fellow Kevin Kumashiro will be hosting three back-to-school interactive webinars this week, focused on public communications, providing tips on public speaking, op-eds, and policy briefs. While none of these webinars, which NEPC is co-sponsoring, will be recorded, they are all free and open to the public.

- Webinar #1: Tips for Public Speaking

Wednesday, September 25

9-10am Hawai'i / 12-1pm Pacific / 1-2 pm Mountain / 2-3 pm Central / 3-4pm Eastern

This webinar walks through three formats of public speaking, three frameworks for understanding communication, and three sets of guiding concepts and questions, including concrete tips and resources.

- Webinar #2: Tips for Writing for the Media

NEPC Resources on Education Policy and Policymaking

This newsletter is made possible in part by support provided by the Great Lakes Center for Education Research and Practice: <http://www.greatlakescenter.org>

The National Education Policy Center (NEPC), a university research center housed at the University of Colorado Boulder School of Education, sponsors research, produces policy briefs, and publishes expert third-party reviews of think tank reports. NEPC publications are written in accessible language and are intended for a broad audience that includes academic experts, policymakers, the media, and the general public. Our mission is to provide high-quality information in support of democratic deliberation about education policy. We are guided by the belief that the democratic governance of public education is strengthened when policies are based on sound evidence and support a multiracial society that is inclusive, kind, and just.
